GEORGETOWN AND ITS AFFAIRS.

nathematical and classical school takes place rope. on the 25th of July, in Forrest Hall. At Forrest Hall, last night, there was a large and brilliant audience, and all were much delighted with the evenings's entertainment. The election for officers of Mount Pisgah Encampment, I. O. O. F., took place on Tuesday night last, and resulted in the choice of the following Brothers : Robert Cunningham, C. P.; John Paxton, J. W.; Joseph L. Semmes, I. W.; Samuel Donah, H. P.; Wm. H. Maril, Scribe; Wm. H. Clabaugh, Treasurer. They will be installed by the Grand C. P. of the District on the first Tuesday in July. The many sales of property that have taken place within the last few months, and the increased prices at which it sold, give us unmistakable evidence that our citizens are fast emerging from the state of inactivity in which they have remained for many years. But a few years ago, in almost every part of the town, you might see vacant stores for rent, and private dwellings could be had at any time. Now there are few if any stores in any business part of the town tenantless, and private dwellings are not to be had for love nor money. As a further proof of the fact, in a private conversation I had with one of our leading merchants, he told me his business increased more than three thousand dollars last year, and that the increase this year would be near four thousand; and this, too, with increased opposition. Mr. Ager, the contractor, has a strong force at work on Congress street, and is fast pushing the improvement to completion. It will be beautiful improvement when finished, and will reflect great credit on-those engaged in its execution. Messrs. Calhoun and Stewart do the paving and curbing.

The flour and grain market remains unchanged. Flour is held nominally at $4@4.121. Some small lots of wheat are coming in and selling at 85@90 cents. Corn 52@55 cents. The health of our town never was better at this season of the year than it is now. News of general interest is as scarce as fifty-dollar gold pieces. Arrival .- Packet schooner Frank, McMath. New York via Norfolk, to F. & A. H. Dodge.

In addition to the superior qualities of the line, for the transaction of Merchandise, its manifest advantages over the U. S. We have also established agencies in GUAYAQUIL. CALLAO, and VALPARAISO, for which ports, and other cities on the South American coast, we are prepared to receive LETTERS and PARCELS, which will be promptly despetched to their destination by our agent in Panama.

Mr. Robert Scarz—Dear Sir 1 have locked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literary labor you have performed, and the research it must have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral Hersature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

Respectfully and sincerely, your obliged servant, EDWARD HITCHCOCK.

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BERTINH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greatest parties in England—Tory, Whilg, and Radiesl; "Blackwood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edinburgh Review" Whilg, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the hast great ecclesiastical movement in Sectland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westminster," though repristed under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the sdvantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofoce issued.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latiu Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Cocronion; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in each Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing to the late revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Wheever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

The LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on line white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.
